

WILL SANTIAGO PROVE SPAIN'S SECOND MANILA?

Take Your Prescriptions to
NELSON & SOULE'S
DRUG STORE

Up to date in all lines. The purest of liquors for medicinal use only.
ICE CREAM SODA—PURE!
Agent for Huyler's.
Goods delivered. Telephone 313

BOB BLANKS IN LUCK.

Gov. Bradley Has Refused to Ask for a Requisition, and He is Still in Jail at Cairo.

He Will Not be Brought Back to Kentucky to be Lynched—
What Will be Done
is Unknown.

There is no probability of Bob Blanks being taken back to Mayfield soon. An application was made to Governor Bradley to make a requisition on Governor Tanner for him, and this morning Governor Bradley flatly refused as requested, alleging as his reason that Blanks could not get a fair trial
if carried back to Mayfield.

This will no doubt cause great disappointment at Mayfield, where preparations are being made to have a necktie party, according to reports.
It is not known what disposition will be made of Blanks.

Bob Blanks, as will be recalled by readers of the Sun, was arrested near Cairo several days ago for a rape committed at Mayfield last January, and which was one of the worst in the history of Kentucky.

Threats of burning him were made at the time, and if he had been captured then he would no doubt had to suffer untold agonies before being finally killed.

When one of the Mayfield papers received the news of Governor Bradley's action, the telegraph operator ticked back: "Well, it's not far to Cairo."

TENT BLOWN DOWN.

Several Injured at the Divine
Healers' Meeting Last Night.

One Young Lady Had Her Shoulder Blade Broken—Many Might Have Been Killed.

There was a panic at the "divine healers'" meeting at Eleventh and Tennessee streets last night. The wind storm blew down the tent in which the meeting was being held,
and the canvas collapsed, catching many in its fall.

As soon as the wind arose and struck the tent there was a rush for the exit, but it was too late. The big center pole fell and struck among others Miss Lucinda Glenn, of Tennessee street, breaking her shoulder blade, and otherwise injuring her.
Others were hurt, but none seriously
so far as could be learned. It is almost a miracle that some one was not killed.

Among those painfully hurt was Pat Lydon, who had an arm hurt.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascara.
Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever.
10c. 25c. H. C. & C. Co. All druggists refund money.

Good Bye
Old Headache
If you use our Good Bye Headache Powders—4 doses, 10c.

J. D. BACON & CO.
PHARMACISTS
Gold Fifth Agents. Seventh and Jackson

THE BATTLE MAY BE TOMORROW.

Secretary Long Issues a Bulletin
Which is Somewhat Indefinite—Not Our Fault If There is No Fight.

SPAIN MAY HAVE SOME FRIENDS

This Government May Consider
France and Germany as Spanish Allies—Serious Complications May Result.

NEUTRALITY LAWS MUST BE OBSERVED.

Washington, May 20.—Official Bulletin—Secretary Long says there may be a naval battle tomorrow and may be not for a week. It won't be the fault of Admiral Sampson if the great naval battle does not take place tomorrow.

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

Washington, May 20.—The developments of the past few days may cause this government to treat Germany and France as allies of Spain.
This government will insist on a strict observance of the neutrality laws.

GARCIA ON THE MOVE.

Kingston, Jamaica, May 20.—A cable from Santiago says that Gen.
Garcia is marching on that city with eight thousand well-armed insurgents.

Washington, May 20.—A cable from Hayti says that Gen. Gomez, with an army of fifteen thousand men, is marching on Havana with the determination of giving battle on the outskirts of the city.

A SPANISH TRICK.

Washington, May 20, 3:17 p. m.
—Bulletin: It is not thought here that Admiral Cervera is at Santiago, but that the report was sent out to draw our fleets South while the Spanish fleet gets into Havana.

SAMPSON AND SCHLEY JOIN.

Washington, May 20.—Rear Admiral Sampson, with the division of the North Atlantic squadron under his command, which attacked San Juan, Porto Rico, returned to Key West yesterday where he has effected
a junction with the Flying Squadron.
This means that he has under his orders the battleships Iowa, Indiana and Massachusetts, second class battleship Texas, and armored cruisers Brooklyn and New York, which makes him superior by two armor-clads to the Spanish fleet.

ANOTHER VERSION.

Washington, May 20.—It is now known that the government is giving out false reports about Sampson to throw the Spanish off. One bulletin just issued says Sampson is not at Key West.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The damage suit of Dodd against Seamon was called this afternoon. It is for $5000 damages to the plaintiff for running over him with an express wagon.

The case of a St. Louis house against Mr. Henry Jones for $3500 alleged to be due on a note, was decided in favor of the defendant.

$10,000 DAMAGES

Asked By Willie Macon Against the Street Car Co.

Will Macon, through his step father, Ed Singleton, today filed suit against the Paducah Street Railway Co., and the People's Light and Power Company, for $10,000 damages.

Macon is the small colored boy who came near being killed by a live wire at Sixth and Norton streets, a few weeks ago. He seized a telephone wire that was charged with electricity from the street car wires.

RIGHT ON BROADWAY, TOO.

The sight of a wagon being stalled
in the middle of Broadway in mud two feet deep had likely not been seen here for a quarter of a century.

until this morning. About 5 o'clock one of Mr. G. W. Robertson's ice wagons became immovable near Third, on Broadway, and it required considerable time and three or four mules to extricate it.

A NOVEL SOUVENIR.

Supt. McBroom, of the public schools, received today a souvenir pen from the Esterbrook company.
It is gold, the holder being composed of wood from the flagship Lawrence, of Commodore Perry's fleet, which ship was lost in 1813.

TRADED HORSES.

John Dillard, a fireman, complained at police headquarters this afternoon that some one had carried off his horse and traded it. At last accounts it had not been found.

WAR PICTURES

Will Be Seen at the Opera House
Tonight.

The Edison Kinetoscope will give war views at the opera house tonight.
Admission only 10 and 20 cents.
Ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by a paid 20-cent ticket. Seats can be reserved at Van-Culin's book store without extra charge.

CAVALRY OFFICER COMING.

Lieut. Schon Wright, of the First Cavalry, will arrive in the city Tuesday to take recruits for the U. S.
Cavalry.

TRIAL TOMORROW.

The trial of Louisa Freeman, of Hickman, who was arrested and brought here yesterday, is set for tomorrow before Commissioner Puryear.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

George Harvey, General Manager of LaBelle Park, Here Today.

Some Attractions That Will Be Offered to Paducahans Within the Next Few Days.

The opening of LaBelle park next Monday promises to be an important event in amusement circles. Everything is in readiness, and Manager Taylor, of Memphis, will be here to witness the opening, and start things going in person. Down in Memphis the biggest business of years is being done at East End park, which is one of Mr. Taylor's enterprises.
People are being turned away every night.

Mr. Geo. Harvey, the general manager of the Taylor enterprises, arrived this morning from Memphis, and will return tomorrow. He is pleased with the outlook in Paducah, and is satisfied that Paducahans will appreciate the entertainments offered them here by Manager Bostwick.

One prominent man Paducahans will have an opportunity to see the week of the 29th, will be Ches Diamond, the renowned harpist, who is known all over the country as one of the greatest harpists and specialty men in the profession. The Louisville Courier-Journal says of him:

Bijou Theater, Louisville. With Hart's Boston Novelty Co. Charles Diamond, advertised as the premier harp soloist of the world, came on next. The audience expected much from him, as much was promised.
They got it and much more, for besides playing on the harp of gold framed with blue enamel, he wore blue silk tights and picked his harp with a finger that had a diamond ring upon it as big as an engine headlight.
It was printed on the program that "he was the talk of Europe, where he had the honor of entertaining royalty nightly," so of course, he took the bakery last night.

Lotto, the high diver, will make a dive from a 100-foot pole at LaBelle next week. This will be an attraction that few will miss.

LaBelle park will open Monday,
May 23, with an excellent production of "A Shadow of a Crime," by Robt. Sherman's big comedy company. People have always enjoyed themselves at the park before and now that the place has been wonderfully improved their enjoyment will be greatly enhanced. None should fail to be there the opening night. A special feature has been arranged for next week. Lotto, the high diver, will make a dive from a pole 100 feet high.

MEN OF MODERATE MEANS

Need no longer regard tailor-made clothes with fear and trembling.
Dalton now makes clothes in his own shop, here at home--makes the clothes right, makes the bill right. It costs but a trifle more to wear garments that fit than those that a most fit. The acme of style and workmanship is ours. Drop in at 333 Broadway and see about that belated spring suit. You'll be glad you waited--t'will cost you so little.

DALTON, THE TAILOR.

GREAT REJOICING IN SPAIN

Over the Reported Arrival of the Spanish Fleet At Santiago de Cuba.

REPORT NOT YET CONFIRMED.

And the United States Government Does Not Believe It—Trying to Find Out the Real Location of the Fleet.

SPANISH REINFORCEMENTS FOR MANILA.

Madrid, May 20.—The reported arrival of the Spanish fleet under Admiral Cervera at Santiago de Cuba, has caused general rejoicing all over Spain. It is considered here that Cervera has outwitted the American fleets and it is believed that in the bay of Santiago the fleet can not be defeated. The people are everywhere shouting the praises of Admiral Cervera.

TROOPS FOR MANILA.

Cadiz, May 20.—Great forces of troops are being embarked here for Manila. It is said that a strong fleet of warships will also be sent to the Philippine Islands, and it is believed here that Dewey can be overwhelmed.

NOT YET CONFIRMED.

Washington, May 20.—The news of the arrival of Admiral Cervera at Santiago comes by way of Spain, and is not credited here. Absolutely nothing has been received except through Spain. The government has cabled all of its West Indian consuls to spare no expense to discover the whereabouts of the Spanish fleet.

If the Madrid government has received news from Santiago, it is evident that the expedition there to cut the cable failed.

SANTIAGO D'CUBA.

Santiago de Cuba is a maritime port with a population of 45,000 people, the second city in size on the island and the capital of the East Division. It is six miles inland from the mouth of the river Santiago, but nevertheless has a harbor deep enough for ships of the line.

Its port is four miles in length,
well sheltered and defended by several forts, chief of which is Morro Castle, corresponding to the fortification of the same name at Havana.

Two railroads have terminals at Santiago de Cuba and in commercial importance the town ranks next to Havana and Matanzas. It has telegraph wires to all the principal towns of the island and steamers have so far plied regularly between the town and Balabano, touching, before the blockade, at Trinidad, Santa Cruz and Manzanillo.

The province of Santiago de Cuba is at the extreme eastern end of the island and with the exception of a few fortified towns and the capital city, has long been in control of the insurgents.

In a direct line Santiago de Cuba is 450 miles from Havana.

NEWS FROM CAMP COLLIER.

An Interesting Letter From One of the Soldier Boys.

Camp Collier, May 19, 1898.

I want to give you a vivid account of how Company K is situated. First of all I start on the sleeping quarters.
We are sleeping in a barn, and the whole company sleeps together side by side, except the captain, who has been sleeping in another part of the barn. We have feather (straw) beds to sleep on, and at night the boys start up the fuss for blankets, of which we are somewhat short. Then some one will start off cackling like a hen and in a few seconds the whole gang starts; some barking like dogs, mewing like cats, etc. Finally the officer of the day comes up and threatens to run the whole gang in to the guard house. Then comes taps, and you must go to sleep.

As to the eating, for breakfast we have sow-belly, potatoes and punk;
for dinner, punk, potatoes and sow-belly; for supper, potatoes, sow-belly and punk. The desert is fried ice.
We are all big fools about these holes
in our heads.

In addition to this we have a summer theater. Last night we played Romeo and Juliet, the leading players were Dutch, Dickie, as Romeo and Jess Ullman, as Juliet. They put up a fine balcony scene from our bay loft above. Jake Davis is the "buzzer" for company K. He makes most of the racket at night. All the boys miss the free lunch in Paducah, and we are going to have the Palmer house moved here.

We have in addition to the show
the Salvation army with Mr. Long-boy at the head. If you will send your captain some papers like you have been doing I will write again.
I will have to close now as I have to get out a search warrant for one of my shoes. PRIVATE.
Co. K, Third Reg., K. S. G.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

A Shot Gun Seriously Hurts a Little Girl.

Benton, Ky., May 20.—Mattie Smith, 4 years old, was seriously wounded at Briensburg today by the accidental discharge of a shot gun.

POLICE COURT.

Another Man Held for House- breaking in This Court.

Bud Hager, colored, was arrested last night by Officer John Hughes on a charge of housebreaking. He broke into the shoe shop of Wm.
Thompson, at Sixth and Trimble, and stole two pair of shoes, and the charges in the warrant. He was held in the sum of $200 and in default went to jail.

Ed Castleman, the man who was cut on the New South day before yesterday by Jim Martin, was fined $20 and costs for assaulting Ike Aultman.

CUSTOM HOUSE NOTES.

Deputy U. S. Marshal LaRue expects a caller tomorrow. He is Henry Fane, of Farmington, Graves county, who was arrested for selling liquor without a license and gave bond after being brought here. He was unable to appear at the last term of the federal court, and his bond was declared forfeited. An order was made, however, that if he came in and gave a new bond, his other would not be forfeited. A letter was received this morning stating that he would be here tomorrow to execute a new bond.

There are several government prisoners in jail who are desirous of taking the insolvent debtors' oath and securing their release. A letter was received this morning by the deputy marshal from one of them, Monroe Winston, saying that he wanted to swear that he was a pauper and get out, as his family was sick.

Deputy Marshal LaRue has had his office repaired and refurbished, and now it is one of the prettiest in the government building. There is a new carpet on the floor, in addition to the other improvements.

THE $5

VIVE CAMERA

Is splendid value for your money—twelve plate holders free. If you intend buying a camera drop in and see samples of pictures taken with this instrument. Instruction free. Cameras from $1.00 to $50.00. Photographic supplies of all kinds.

M'PHERSON'S

FOURTH AND BROADWAY

PATRIOTIC CATHOLIC KNIGHTS

Adopt Ringing Resolutions Praying for the Success of the American Cause—Supreme Officers.

GREAT HONOR FOR GLADSTONE.

Will Be Buried At Public Expense
in Westminster—An Honor Conferred On But Two of England's Statesmen.

BURIAL PROBABLY NEXT TUESDAY.

St. Louis, Mo., May 20.—The national convention of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America today adopted patriotic resolutions praying for an early victory for the American cause.

The following supreme officers were elected:
President, O'Donnell, Chicago.
Vice President, Crumey, Detroit.
Secretary, Duffy, Memphis.
Treasurer, Miss Sheridan, Louisville.
Medical Director, Dr. Doherty, Louisville.

GLADSTONE'S FUNERAL.

London, May 20.—The government has decided that when the announcement of Gladstone's death is made to parliament today it shall be proposed that the identical honors shall be paid to Gladstone which have been accorded to only two statesmen, Chatham and Pitt, in the course of England's history.

The procedure is that the house of commons upon learning of Gladstone's death will resolve that an humble address be presented to her majesty praying that the remains be interred at public charge and a monument erected in the Collegiate church of St. Peters, Westminster.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

with an inscription expressing the nation's great and irreparable loss.
The burial will probably be next Tuesday.

DEATH IN THE COUNTY.

Ellen Killenbrow, of the Maxon's Mills vicinity, died last night, of dropsy, aged 19. The remains were buried at Bethel.

THE KINETOSCOPE

At Morton's Opera House To-Night.

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

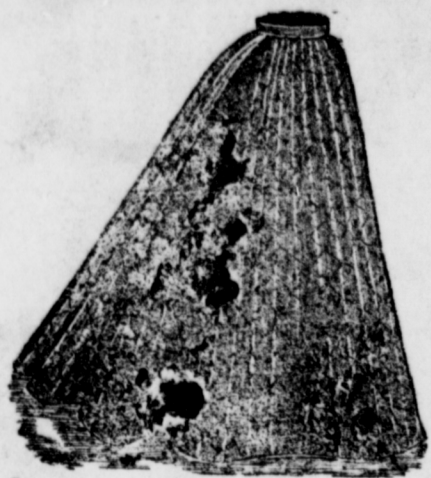

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THE KINETOSCOPE

Edison's new invention, the Kinet-
oscope, will give moving pictures at
the opera house tonight. Admission
only 10 and 20 cents. Get seats at
VanCulin's.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

Tailor-Made Suits and Skirts

The watchwords of this department are

Quality and Style

This week we will give the best values of the season in these garments, made of

Fancy Linens and Pique

New Wash Dress Goods

Ten pieces of neat checks, in light and dark colored ginghams, for wrappers and children's dresses, 8 1/2 cents.

Sheer printed organdies, worth 15c, for 10 cents a yard. Fine French organdies, new designs, for 25 cents. Best zephyr ginghams, in checks and plaids, 10 cents.

Good quality white linen for children's dresses, 5 cents yard.

Skirt Waists

50 cents for stylish percale waists, extra full fronts, short yokes, detachable collars.

75 and 98 cents for skirt waists of dimity, percale and madras, made by the best manufacturers of America. Get half a dozen now; you'll never do as well when these are gone.

$1.25—Pure white lawn shirt waists, very popular now.

Take Advantage of These Prices

Tailor finished undershirts, made of best quality heavy colored linens, with dust ruffle and colored flounce, $1.00.

Hardly distinguishable from elaborate silk skirts are these pretty striped, plaid solid black undershirts at $1.25 and $1.50.

Twenty dozen ladies' real lisle black hose, positively a 35c value, we sell at 25 cents.

Five-inch double-face satin ribbons for 45 cents yard. Well made, stylish colors in plaid parasols for $1.50. Four-play linen collars and cuffs, 10 and 15 cents. Genuine leather belts, in black and colors, 25 cents.

Just Received in the Millinery Room

The patriotic "Maine" sailors, with red, white and blue bands. A new lot of bicycle hats.

Handsome flower-laden and feather-trimmed pattern hats. White muslin sun-bonnets to sell at 35c.

ELLIS, RUDY & PHILLIPS

219 BROADWAY 221 BROADWAY

THE PADUCAH DAILY SUN.

Published every afternoon, except Sunday, by

THE SUN PUBLISHING COMPANY, INCORPORATED.

P. M. FISHER, President. J. W. CLEVERLEY, Vice President. JOHN A. DORRIS, Secretary. W. P. PATTON, Treasurer.

Office: No. 214 East Broadway.

Daily, per annum in advance, $4.50.

Daily, six months, "2.25.

Daily, one month, "40.

Weekly, per week, "10 cents.

Weekly, per annum in advance, $3.00.

Specimen copies free.

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1908

The condition of Broadway is a good illustration of the up-to-date methods of our City Council.

The best reason for believing the Spanish fleet is at San Juan is the fact that it was sighted 1000 miles to the south yesterday.

COMMODORE SCHLEY says his name should be pronounced "sly," and we think Admiral Cervera's name should be pronounced the same way.

That alleged Board of Strategy at Washington might take a few lessons from Admiral Cervera. He seems to be the greatest naval strategist of the day.

The Register's hot telegraphic service is illustrated by the fact that it has not yet learned of Gladstone's death, which was told in full in all the other morning papers in the country yesterday. Also it publishes this morning the startling news of Ben Keys' nomination, which was published exclusively in the Sun day before yesterday.

It seems strange that the City Engineer does not discharge the City Council. He does just as he pleases in all things, either in expending the city's money or in making arbitrary changes in the sewer system. As a matter of fact it is difficult to see what use the city has for a council, especially that it now has a City Engineer who imagines he is the whole thing.

The Sun is now settled in its new quarters and in a few days will be thoroughly at home. Moving days in a newspaper office are times when the courtesies of the other newspaper offices are greatly appreciated. Through the courtesy of Mr. C. M. Lenke, who allowed us the use of his news press, the Sun has appeared regularly this week, though unfortunately a little late for two or three days. We also wish to thank the Evening News for their unsolicited offer to give us any assistance in men or material that we might need to bridge over the moving period.

PHILIPPINE EXPEDITION.

Washington, May 20.—General Merritt is here completing arrangements to send the City of Pekin to Manila this week with troops for Admiral Dewey.

Washington, May 20.—Major General Merritt's advice as to the Philippine expedition will be followed. He is to have 14,000 men, 5,000 of whom will be regulars. The City of Pekin will probably sail Saturday with the 1,400 men. General Otis will command the first expedition.

ALLOWED EXPENSES.

Washington, May 20.—A house bill reported by the committee on claims passed this week, directing the payment to Samuel McKee, of Kentucky, $1,718, for expenses incurred by him in a contest for his seat in the Fortieth congress.

MAY BEGIN NEXT WEEK.

Washington, May 20.—Unless some unforeseen movement of the Spanish fleet occurs the invasion of Cuba by the United States army will begin the latter part of next week.

SENT AWAY.

Sir Henson, a man in destitute circumstances, was given transportation to Nashville by the mayor yesterday.

ANOTHER MEMBER ARRIVES.

Miss Juno Barrett, who is to be a member of the stock company at La Belle park, arrived yesterday from Missouri, where she has been spending her vacation.

DIED YESTERDAY.

Henry Randle, colored, died yesterday. He was released from the county jail a few days ago to die, after having been there for some time with consumption. The case against him was dismissed.

LICENSE RAISED.

Manager Fletcher Terrell has notified the board of education that he will charge $5 more per night extra for the opera house for the two commencements of the Paducah public schools. The board has heretofore paid but $35 a night on commencement, but this year the manager wants $40 for each night, or $80 for both.

REV. PENROD COMPLIMENTED.

Will Preach the Baccalaureate Sermon at Creal College.

Rev. W. K. Penrod, of the First Baptist church, has been invited to preach the baccalaureate sermon at Creal college, at Creal Springs, Ill.

The commencement will take place on the 27, and Rev. Penrod has accepted the invitation, and will deliver the address. Creal college is one of the most important colleges in Southern Illinois.

GLADSTONE'S CAREER.

A Sketch of England's Greatest Commoner—A Life Work Intimately Connected With England's History.

The Champion of Irish Home Rule and the Friend of the Oppressed—America's Staunch Admirer.

History records few careers as remarkable as that of William Ewart Gladstone. Of his 88 years 64 have been spent in active service for his country.

He contributed more than any single man with pen and voice has done, to create Italy and to destroy the Turk in Europe. As prime minister or plenipotentiary, he enlarged Greece, transferred Corfu, established the British influence in Egypt. He annexed New Guinea, North Borneo and Bechuanaland, but sedulously condemned every extension of the empire that was not forced by inexorable necessity. He established the great precedent of the Alabama arbitration, and was the first British statesman to recognize that in the future the United States will supersede Great Britain as the most powerful of the English speaking communities.

Gladstone's parliamentary career dates from December, 1832, when he took his seat in the house as a member from Newark, a nomination brought belonging to the Duke of Newcastle. He was then a graduate of Oxford of one year's standing and was just entering his 33rd year. In 1841 he was elected to parliament, and in 1842 Sir Robert Peel was called to form a government he named Mr. Gladstone junior lord of the treasury, and soon after undersecretary for the colonies. From this period he held many high places. In 1841, under Peel's second administration, he became a member of the privy council and was appointed vice president of the board of trade and master of the mint. He was president of the board from 1843 to 1845; secretary of state for the colonies from 1845 to 1846; and chancellor of the exchequer during three cabinet ministries, the first from 1852 to 1855; the second from 1859 to 1866; and the third from 1873 to 1880.

When Peel entered upon his great administration in 1841, the nation was confronted with a deficit of $12,500,000 in the revenues. The task was therefore, reform, and the great labor involved in the successive development of the many changes in the tariff developed mainly upon Mr. Gladstone. The revision of the customs tariff of the following year was his able work. At one stroke he initiated free trade by striking 750 of the 1200 duty paying articles from the duty list, or reducing the tax. It further led him to fight for the measure, clause by clause, in committee of the commons. The effect of this first tariff measure of the Peel administration was a change from a deficit in the revenues of $12,500,000 in 1841 to a surplus of $13,500,000 in 1844.

Mr. Gladstone's Toryism was renounced in the year 1852, when he declined a position in the Cabinet of Lord Derby. On assuming the Chancellorship of the Exchequer under Lord Aberdeen in the same year he introduced his famous budget in a series of addresses pronounced by Lord John Russell "to contain the ablest exposition of the principles of finance ever delivered by an English statesman." This budget of 1850 was followed by six annual budgets, all Mr. Gladstone's and all rare successes, and the skill shown in the management of finances excited the admiration of all Europe.

On the death of Lord Palmerston in 1865 Mr. Gladstone became leader of the liberals in the house. In 1868 he introduced his famous resolutions favoring the disestablishment and disendowment of the Irish church, but they failed of passage. In 1869 their author succeeded Mr. Disraeli as premier and results were down in evidence. The same Irish church act was passed in the following year, the Irish land act became a law in 1870 and the purchase of commissions in the army was abolished in 1871. But the term was a stormy one and after repeated defeats Mr. Gladstone dissolved parliament. The next election was a victory for the conservatives. Mr. Gladstone was relapsed as premier, and Lord Salisbury came in. The former then entered the memorable campaign in 1880 as a belligerent liberal. Liberalism won and carried its leader back into the premiers chair. The series of orations which Mr. Gladstone delivered during this campaign in Midlothian will ever stand as an instance of wonderful intellectual vigor and force of physical strength.

The Irish question had been growing in importance since 1845 and now was a cause of dissension and hot factional fights. The Irish church and land acts had only augmented the trouble, and in June, 1886, the disturbing element became so strong that Mr. Gladstone was forced to resign. Lord Salisbury was his successor, but after a short brief term he relinquished an unwelcome charge, and for the third time the "grand old man" was placed in England's highest civil office. He was again turned down, however, by the next general election, and Lord Salisbury stepped into the vacant chair. Thus Mr. Gladstone's career during this period was one of high position, yet of successful ups and downs.

The election of 1892, fought on the lines of home rule, is still remembered. It was a victory for Mr. Gladstone, who for the fourth time received the seals and returned to power with the support of a good working majority. He soon presented his famous home rule bill, and in defense of it delivered a remarkable address. The house was packed and fought over it night and day, but it was finally carried. That was a great day in the house and the enthusiasm and excitement was intense. Then it went to the house of lords. The conservatives, by the aid of the whips, gathered their forces and after four nights of debate the measure on which Ireland had based its hopes, and for which Mr. Gladstone had labored untiringly for years and years and which had gained the consent and approval of the direct representatives of the people, was rejected by the enormous majority of 378. It was a terrible blow to the Irish cause, and expressions of wrath rose up from all sides. Attacks on the house of peers and the propositions for its annulment were frequent. The great climax of his career had failed, and feeling unable to continue the battle he gave way to younger men. Referring to this defeat he said: "I hope the Irish will unite after my death."

His last speech in parliament was made on February 21, 1894, and on March 3 of that year he resigned the premiership and was succeeded by Lord Roseberry as the leader of the liberal party. Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

received the seals and returned to power with the support of a good working majority. He soon presented his famous home rule bill, and in defense of it delivered a remarkable address. The house was packed and fought over it night and day, but it was finally carried. That was a great day in the house and the enthusiasm and excitement was intense. Then it went to the house of lords. The conservatives, by the aid of the whips, gathered their forces and after four nights of debate the measure on which Ireland had based its hopes, and for which Mr. Gladstone had labored untiringly for years and years and which had gained the consent and approval of the direct representatives of the people, was rejected by the enormous majority of 378. It was a terrible blow to the Irish cause, and expressions of wrath rose up from all sides. Attacks on the house of peers and the propositions for its annulment were frequent. The great climax of his career had failed, and feeling unable to continue the battle he gave way to younger men. Referring to this defeat he said: "I hope the Irish will unite after my death."

His last speech in parliament was made on February 21, 1894, and on March 3 of that year he resigned the premiership and was succeeded by Lord Roseberry as the leader of the liberal party. Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

Mr. Gladstone's chief exploit has been the establishment of free trade and the repeal of the paper duty, the extension of the franchise to the workmen of the towns and the enfranchisement of the rural householders. He established secret voting. It was his administration that passed the first education act. He assisted in the emancipation of the Jews and the liberation of labor from the conscription laws. He first taught democracy by his Irish land act and compelled the British public to consider the feasibility of subordinate and statutory parliaments within the British Isles. He fought the divorce laws and asserted that marriage was to him the most wonderful and sacred thing in the world. In spite of his wonderfully active career as a statesman Mr. Gladstone has never ceased to take an interest in educational and literary labors, including translations of the Greek classics. He has, during his long life, occupied with ease a position in the front rank of English scholarship. Mr. Gladstone has not only been a great worker, politically, but in his domestic life he has won the world's regard. During the closing years of his life he spent most of his time at his famous estate of Hawarden, to whose grounds the public was always welcome, surrounded by his family and devoting himself alternately to questions of state and to study. His wife, who is several years his junior, was at his deathbed; he has one, one married daughter and several grandchildren.

MEETS EVER REQUIREMENT OF A CRITICAL TYPEWRITER USING PUBLIC. IT IS THE LEADER IN IMPROVEMENTS, THE MOST IN RABLE MACHINE, MADE, AND DAILY IN THOUSANDS OF OFFICES ALL OVER THE WORLD. IT CONTINUES TO PROVE ITSELF TO BE THE BEST VALUE.

Ask for Our New Art Catalogue

The Smith Premier Typewriter Co., 821 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo.

J. E. ENGLISH & CO., Dealers, 108 North Second Street, Paducah, Ky. Telephone No. 30.

COMMENCEMENTS.

Program for the High School Graduates This Year—Very Attractive.

There Will Be a Colored Commencement, for the First Time in Paducah's History.

The commencement exercises for the public schools will be held on June 13 and 14. There is now talk of holding them in the county court house, on account of the raise in rent of Manager Terrell of the opera house.

The program is as follows: Invocation—W. H. Pinkerton. Class Chorus—Merry June (Vincennes). Salutatory—Nunquam non Paratus—Jesse Weil.

Duet—Grand Fantasia II Provatore—Rosa Kolb and May Hymarsh. Recitation—Salome—Maude Vance. Oration—Why We Fight—Stuart Simont.

Vocal Quartette (Venez)—Louise Kirchhoff, Jessie Mikesell, Elizabeth Jarvis and May Hymarsh. Declaration Oration (Brown)—Chas. Acker.

Essay—Attention to Trifles—Myrtle Decker. Marching duet—First mandolin, May Harris; second mandolin, Mildred Terrell; Piano, May Karmis.

Recitation—The Day of an Orchard—Jettie Davis. Oration, Education—Edwin Wolff. Piano solo—Klavier Konzert (Mendelssohn, Op. 25; Mitt. Orchester Begleitung)—Harry Gilbert.

Recitation, Alvin—Elizabeth Jarvis. Oration, Presentation of Spade by Class of '98—Mary Gagan. Response, Acc. dance of Spade by Class of '99—Mattie Davis.

Vocal solo, O. Happy Day (Carl Gotte)—Louise Kirchhoff. Oration, Room at the Top—Sina Mitchell. Essay, Art—Myrtle Greer.

Class Prophecy—John Woolfolk. Piano solo, Zephyr de Mai—Ethel Bailey. Oration, A Association and Environment—Willie Winston.

Valedictory—Edna Wright. Presentation of Diplomas. Chorus—Oh! Come Where the Violets Grow. Benediction—Rev. Mr. Taylor.

The colored high school commencement exercises will take place June 14. The names of the graduates and the program is as follows: Chorus—Oh! Come Where the Violets Grow.

Salutatory—Little Things—Georgie M. Burks. Solo—Christ Stilling the Tempest (Watson)—E. W. Benton. Thirty-five Years of Freedom—Mattie E. Overstreet.

Nobility of Labor—Given Clark. Duet—Two Forest Nymphs (Glover)—Bessie A. Davis, Makala M. Bradshaw. The Springtime of Life—Lila S. McCady.

Public School's A. Factors of Civilization—Ophelia Brown. Instrumental solo—L. Argentine (Ketterer)—Georgie M. Burks. The Levites That Move the World—Ella Husband.

The Women for the Hour—Ruth Cartwright. Quartette—The Professor at Home (Bliss). True Education, Its Aims and Tendencies—Rosa Jones.

Class History and Prophecy—Mattie B. Brown.

Shopping Made Easy, Pleasant and Profitable

The Bazaar makes it a point to have just the goods you want. The newest styles find their way quickly to our counters from every market. Immense assortments bought for spot cash at bed-rock prices. We can give you unequalled bargains in fine new goods. This week we place on sale a number of special purchases that mean a saving of 25 to 50 per cent. to customers.

Shirt waists at the price of making. Just bought the entire remaining stock of this season's shirt waists from the largest New York manufacturer. They consist of fine percales, dimities, organdies and niques, in white and colors. They ranged in price from 75c to $2.00. They go on sale for 39, 69, 75 and 98c.

Just received, 100 sample swell skirts, the very latest thing. Fine French plaids with heavy satin bars, in turquoise, cerise blue and white, black and white stripes and checks. These skirts would be considered cheap at $6.00 and $8.00; our prices while they last, $2.25 and $3.98.

Ask to see our $1.00 mohair skirts. Two hundred pairs fine kid gloves, all colors, regular prices $1.00 and $1.25, go on sale at 59c. Sizes 5 1/2 and 6.

Ladies' fine 50c plaid hose, 25c.

215 BROADWAY... THE BAZAAR ...215 BROADWAY

Monuments... Bicycle

REMARKABLY LOW PRICES...

Call and see our stock and prices. No other yard in the south has as fine an assortment of the latest styles and designs.

J. E. Williamson & Co.
119 North Third Street, Paducah, Ky.

LA BELLE PARK

CHARLES T. TAYLOR, Manager
R. G. BOSTWICK, Resident Manager.

GRAND OPENING
MONDAY, MAY 23

A Shadow of a Crime

PRODUCED BY THE
ROBERT SHERMAN COMPANY

This company has been engaged at a considerable expense for the entire season, and each member will work to please the people.

The performance will be free from all vulgarity, and people who forget that it is a place for ladies and gentlemen will be compelled to leave.

MORTON'S OPERA HOUSE
Fletcher Terrell, Manager.

Two nights and Saturday matinee, beginning

20. FRIDAY, MAY 20

EDISON'S KINETOSCOPE

PRODUCING

WAR PICTURES

Showing the Maine explosion, with mechanical effects. Scene taken direct from Havana harbor. Shows the wrecking company's tug at work on the Maine disaster. This picture is now being produced at five leading theaters in New York city to crowded houses.

Prices 10c and 20c. Ladies free Friday night when accompanied by a paid ticket. Seats can be reserved at Van Culin's Thursday morning.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAIL.

Louisville and East.

ARRIVE P. O. DEPART P. O.

6:00 a.m. 7:15 a.m.

2:30 p.m. 1:30 p.m.

Memphis and South.

6:00 a.m. 1:30 p.m.

2:30 p.m. 1:30 p.m.

St. Louis and West.

6:00 a.m. 11:45 a.m.

3:10 p.m. 8:45 p.m.

Evansville and Ohio River Points.

10:00 a.m. (daily except Sunday)

Steamboat due 10:55 a.m.

Benton and N. C. & St. L. South.

10:10 p.m. 6:00 a.m.

EXCURSION VIA ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R.

Summer rates are now in effect to Dawson, Grayson, Cerulean, Crittenden and other summer and health resorts, good for 90 days.

On May 17, and June 7 and 21, homecoming excursion tickets will be sold to various points in Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arizona, Arkansas, Texas, Indian Territory, and other states at one fare for the round trip. Good for 21 days to return.

11mt J. T. DOWMAN, agent.

For nice dry sawdust tel. 29.

Typewriter for Sale.

In perfect condition, brand new, in fact. A Williams typewriter for $60.00, and a Bickenseder for $35.00. Inquire at the SUN office.

CALLED MEETING.

A Lively Session of the City Council Last Night.

Mr. Harney is Elected Assistant City Engineer, at $75 Per Month.

There was a sort of monkey and parrot time of it in the council last night. The meeting was called to elect an assistant engineer.

The Cohanus company was given permission to extend the water mains in the vicinity of the plant.

Mr. Pat Lally was accorded permission to move a house at Tenth and Trimble streets.

The election of an assistant city engineer was entered into. Messrs. H. L. Lyon, W. Robert Paige and R. O. Harney were nominated. Mr. Paige's name was afterwards withdrawn.

The salary was fixed at $75 a month. There was a hot discussion, after which the vote was taken. Mr. Harney received seven votes, while Mr. Lyon received five.

CASE SETTLED.

The Muller Will is Broken by the Court.

The case of John Muller and others against Will Muller was decided late yesterday afternoon in the circuit court, by a verdict for the plaintiff.

The case was to break a will purporting to be the last will and testament of the late Mrs. Barbara Muller, in which she left two of the children $5 each. The plaintiffs claimed that she made a later will, which has never been found. The estate is now being divided equally among all the children. It is valued at about $6,000.

IS ACTING AGENT.

Mr. L. Powell Nash, formerly of the city, and a son of Mr. M. Nash, has been appointed acting agent of the Illinois Central at Louisville, in place of Agent Fuller, who is ill.

TREASURER RESIGNS.

Last night at the meeting of the Home Forum, Miss Ella Patterson resigned her position as treasurer, on account of her early departure for an extended visit South. The resignation was accepted with regret, as she has made a splendid officer, and was liked by all. Mr. Dick Clements was elected to succeed her.

REMOVAL NOTICE

The Sun has moved to its new quarters at

214 Broadway

THE CITY'S MENACE.

Paducah's Sewerage System Liable to be Ruined by Arbitrary Changes.

Opposition to Sewerage System Aroused Because Begun by Republican Council.

A step forward was taken in the progress of Paducah when the city council last year decided to have constructed a system of sewerage, and when the council retired it saw the work well under way. They took up the matter of sewerage and wrestled with it for many months before any final action was taken. It is not, however, the intention of the city to have the old council.

It has another object in view. Preliminary to adopting any system of sewerage, the matter was given exhaustive investigation. All the available literature obtainable appertaining to the subject, was thoroughly considered, and to further their desire to faithfully inform themselves on the subject before taking final action, they even visited both Evansville and Memphis to witness the workings of the systems there. After due deliberation, and consequent obtaining the best expert advice possible, the present system was selected as the one likely to render the best possible results to Paducah. There were people all along who opposed this system, simply because the council favored it, and the council was in politics, republican.

Men who had been known to favor a system of sewerage for years then announced in opposition to it. Why? Because it was adopted by a republican council. They were too narrow-minded to perceive the fact that there is no such thing as a "republican form of sewerage." Because it was provided by a republican administration, it must needs be a republican system of sewerage, so they concluded in their prejudice; despite the fact that it was adopted by men who were elected to serve the city by a majority of the voters, and whose integrity and honesty of purpose can not be questioned; despite the fact that the system was recommended by the best experts, and adopted only after the most careful consideration of the subject; notwithstanding the fact that it was adopted for the use of one and all alike, and was planned and drawn by an expert, who doubtless knows more than all those who oppose it, combined; and ignoring the fact that it was the one thing Paducah had long needed, they nevertheless forthwith began doing all in their power to make it a failure. That is not all, some of them are still at it.

The system is now seriously menaced, and it behooves all good citizens to immediately take some step to stop the evil while it can be stopped. The present city engineer has been known to oppose the system from the start—probably because he didn't design it. Soon after he began work in his official capacity he commenced making changes to suit his whims, irrespective of results. It is not necessary to here enumerate the changes; the fact that he made any changes is sufficient to arouse alarm in all citizens who have any pride in the sewer system. One thing was the doing away of the emergency sewer by the council, at the instance of the engineer, who seems to dominate it as completely as a Scavenger. Should anything happen to the main sewer after it is finished there will be absolutely no outlet, as the emergency sewer, designed for use in such instances, is one of the things the engineer, in his official erudition, decided was totally unnecessary.

There have been other changes, as stated before, and it is by the past that we judge the future; hence it is logical to suppose that he will undertake other changes in his wild delusions, as the work progresses. The point is simply that no changes are necessary. In fact changes are absolutely detrimental, if not irreparably ruinous, to the system. If any changes had been necessary they would have been made by the gentleman who designed the system, and who had designed many a system before, and will doubtless be designing them when many self-constituted geniuses are forgotten. Everything was mathematically figured out when the system was designed. And as changes being necessary, the council, as a representative of the people, ought to feel duty bound to see that none are made, and is in a menace to the system, and accordingly, to the interests of the people who put them there.

Mr. Postlewait, the engineer, may be a very nice gentleman. Not a member of the Sun force is personally acquainted with him, and what has here been said is said simply of him as an official, and is in the interest of the people, whose welfare it is evidently more interested in than he.

In conclusion, Paducah is to have a system of sewerage. The contract for a part of it has already been let. It will have to be paid for by the people, whether it is done right or wrong, and it might as well be built right as wrong. It is not a republican form of sewerage, as stated above, nor was it intended for the republicans exclusively, nor will it be paid for exclusively by the republicans. It is intended for one and all alike, and will be paid for by one and all alike, and everybody should use his influence to have it done right. The question is, are you willing to stand by and see it ruined without raising a hand to prevent it?

HE SKIPPED.

Eldridge Wright, of Memphis, Tenn., in company with Will Mount, son of Buck Mount of Paducah, and Omer Rose, thought he was privileged to insult a colored girl, who resented the insult. Oscar Jarrett asked Mr. Wright to attend to his own business and let his sister alone. This brought on a row between the three parties on one side and a lot of colored men on the other side. A number of the men left the boat and went to Brooklyn by rail as a result. Wright was arrested, taken to the police court on complaint of Capt. Cowling and bonded for his appearance at 8 a. m. May 18, but failed to appear. The bond was forfeited and paid by J. L. Copland. Wright crossed the river at 10 p. m. Tuesday night.—Metropolis Journal—Republican.

IN NEW QUARTERS.

Drs. Reddick and Rivers are preparing to move into the Boyd building, of which they assumed the proprietorship, as stated a few days ago. Dr. Boyd turned everything over to them yesterday and they are now in full charge, although they have not moved in. The offices of both will be there.

O LORD HOW LONG.

There has been no light for three weeks in the northern part of the city, and although it has been promised for at least two weeks, it is not yet forthcoming, and there is no certainty when the machinery will be repaired. It is hoped to have the lights turned on tonight.

Ice Cream and Strawberries.

Class No. 9, of the First Christian Sunday school, will give an ice cream and strawberry supper at the church this evening. The boys solicit the patronage of their friends.

A FEATHER.

Jack Davis, a brother of Capt. B. B. Davis, wrote a friend here yesterday, saying "I enclose you a feather from my bed." He had enclosed a blade of blue grass.

Lost!

A pair of gold rimmed spectacles, on Tenth street between Jackson and Ohio. Finder will please leave at this office and receive reward. 20m2

COLORED MINERS.

Three Hundred Passed Through Paducah Last Night En Route to Cartersville.

Will Work in Place of Strikers, if They Live Long Enough, for Trouble is Expected.

A special train passed through the city at 11:30 o'clock last night en route from Jellico mines to Cartersville, Ill., where the miners are on a strike. On board were 300 colored miners, who go to Cartersville to take the places of the miners.

It is predicted there will be trouble when they are put to work, as colored miners are not allowed to work there even when there is no strike, and now that they are to take the places of strikers, there is a much greater probability of trouble.

Some of them learned on the way there was danger, and none of them had even heard there was a strike, and were badly frightened. They said at the union depot that had they known the true condition of affairs, they would have never come.

IS ACTING AGENT.

Mr. L. Powell Nash, formerly of the city, and a son of Mr. M. Nash, has been appointed acting agent of the Illinois Central at Louisville, in place of Agent Fuller, who is ill.

TREASURER RESIGNS.

Last night at the meeting of the Home Forum, Miss Ella Patterson resigned her position as treasurer, on account of her early departure for an extended visit South. The resignation was accepted with regret, as she has made a splendid officer, and was liked by all. Mr. Dick Clements was elected to succeed her.

HURRAH FOR THE CHAMPION HEATER!

How dear to my heart is our snug little bathroom. Our refuge from sickness, discomfort or dust: Its marbles, its nickel, its neat-painted flooring. So shiny and free from all foulness and rust. But the best thing there is within that enclosure. The object that pleases us most of them all. That soonest can warm us when chilled by exposure. Is the good Champion heater that stands by the wall: The Champion gas heater, the nickel-plate heater. The nice, handy heater, so shiny and tall.

When the fires are all out and the children awake me, With coughs or with croup, at once, with all speed, To light up the heater I straightway betake me. And find it is always a good friend indeed. For laundry, for sickroom—most all pain relieving—For milk that is malted, best extract or tea, For hot water bags—why, 'tis past all believing. How handy a good Champion heater can be: The Champion gas heater, the nickel-plate heater—No living without one henceforward for me.

Champion Instantaneous Water Heater

Exclusive state agency. Prices upon application. Heats forty gallons of water to 140 degrees for 1 cent. The proper bathing temperature is 70 degrees.

OUR REFERENCES, WITH PERMISSION, ARE:

MAJOR BLOOM, FRIEDMAN, KEILER & CO., CHARLES REED, CITY NATIONAL BANK, CHICAGO HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

MINZESHEIMER PLUMBING COMPANY

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. Hermann Harris Dies of Heart Failure at the Home of His Daughter.

Had Been a Resident of Paducah Several Years—Leaves a Family.

Mr. Hermann Harris, the well known traveling man, who had for several years been connected with the firm of Hecht, Bros., died suddenly last night at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Max Hecht, of West Broadway, after several months of failing health. He had been complaining for two months or more, but was out day before yesterday. He recently returned from Louisville, where he had been under the treatment of physicians, but did not seem to be benefited.

The deceased was born in Germany, but had spent most of his life in America. He was 68 years old, and came here from Louisville about five years ago. He died of heart failure.

Besides a wife he leaves six children, three daughters and three sons, as follows: Mesdames James Weller, Max Hecht and Mrs. Herman, of the city, and Messrs. Ike Harris, of Louisville; Louis Harris, of New York, and Milton Harris, of Ashville, N. C.

The funeral will take place in Louisville Sunday, but further than this nothing is known of the arrangements for it.

SEWER WORK.

Thought That It Will Begin Tomorrow Morning On Broadway and Third.

The Law Laid Down to Engineer Postwaite by City Attorney—Contractors Displaced.

The sewer work was prevented today by rain. A settlement of the differences is in sight. Yesterday afternoon Mayor Lang sent for City Attorney Lightfoot and City Engineer Postwaite, and had the former state the law to the engineer. He said to the engineer that he had absolutely no right to lower the grade on Broadway or anywhere else, for that matter, as such was entirely in conflict with the specifications and contract. That the grade for the Broadway sewer would have to be given to the contractors, as it was on the profile.

This may settle it and it may not. While the city engineer had no right to lower the grade, he might, with the concurrence of the council, have raised it, as he can make no changes with the consent of the council which cheapen the system.

The contractors are displeased with Captain Fowler's remarks in the council last night. Captain Fowler said the election of Mr. Lyon was desired by the contractors, and he was their man, and other things to the same effect. One of the contractors said this morning the allegations were as unfounded as they were untrue, as they (the contractors) had never asked anyone to vote for Mr. Lyon, and had no choice in the matter other than to get a competent man.

Mr. Lyon was a competent man, and there was never any complaint against him.

The present assistant engineer is a youth of about 22, and his strongest recommendation is probably that he suits the city engineer. He has no recommendations to show that he knows anything about sewerage, and the city is now placed in a very peculiar predicament with neither of her engineers knowing anything about sewerage, and several thousand dollars worth of sewerage to build and pay for.

It is hoped the work on Broadway will now go on, and the thoroughfare be cleared and opened to traffic once more.

If the system is ruined, the people will have no reason to be ignorant of who is responsible.

PERSONALS.

Miss Floss Owen has returned from Louisville.

Dr. W. H. Pitcher has returned from Louisville.

Mr. S. T. Payne, of Ogden's landing, is in the city.

Mr. J. E. Long, of Birmingham, Ky., is in the city today.

Mrs. M. E. Bolinger, of Mayfield, is visiting Mrs. Jas. E. Wilhelm.

Mr. A. C. Patterson and wife returned this morning from Henderson.

Mrs. Chas. Hegewald, of New Albany, Ind., is a guest of Mrs. Wm. Nagel, her sister.

Misses Lulu Settle and Lulu Jenkins, of Hamby and Pembroke, Ky., respectively, are guests of Mrs. Rowena Rivers.

Secretary A. Knox, of the Y. M. C. A., is expected home this afternoon from Pine Bluff, Ark., where he was called last Saturday by the serious illness of his father.

Surgeon Major Frank Boyd left last night for his old home at McLeansboro, Ill., to spend a few hours with his parents before returning to his regiment at Lexington. He will not return to Paducah again before entering active service unless the regiment is sent to Washington.

NOW'S THE TIME TO BUY

Screen Doors, Screen Windows, Cream Freezers, Hammocks, Refrigerators, Lawn Swings, Ice Picks, Ice Shredders, Water Coolers.

LARGEST STOCK LOWEST PRICES

Scott Hardware Co. INCORPORATED 318-324 BROADWAY PADUCAH KY.

I AM SELLING THE...

St. Clair Steel Range

'At a very low price. See them.

M. E. JONES

This design is representative of the very highest excellence in the manufacture of ladies' fine footwear. The shoe sold under this trade mark is made to satisfy those who insist on the best.

The John Foster Fine Shoe for Ladies

—that's it—sold by George Bernhard, and nowhere else in Paducah. If you try a pair you are henceforth a regular customer. You can't be better suited.

The Douglas Shoes for Men

—ever wear them? They fit well, look well and wear well. Most people know what they are. They are made in all styles, and can be had here. Plenty of other good shoes, and none but good shoes. Drop in and inspect this model stock, the handsomest and best selected in town.

306 Broadway GEORGE BERNHARD

OLD GLORY FOREVER!

In Humanity's Cause Our Flag is Unfurled!

"The conflict deepens. On ye brave, Now rush to glory"—Cuba save. Brave patriots, all your banners wave. And charge with all your chivalry."

O'er Atlantic's wave McKinley brave Sends our noble seamen, undaunted, true, A fair life to save or find a grave. And plant a new "red, white and blue."

"What higher aim can patriot know? What destiny more grand? Than the soldier's fight for freedom's right, To free a suffering land?"

The Spanish Dons ere long shall taste Our "Uncle Samuels'" pills. And freedom's bird shall proudly soar In the Pride of the Great Antilles.

In war, as in peace, it will pay everybody to go to

DORIAN'S STORE

AT 205 BROADWAY

J. WILL FISHER

Master Commissioner McCracken Circuit Court, NOTARY PUBLIC and Tornado Insurance

Will take acknowledgements of deeds, etc., anywhere in the city or county.

ABSTRACTOR OF TITLES

Manager of the only complete abstract to titles in McCracken county and the city of Paducah. The abstract was made while clerk of the county court for a term of eight years. This department is under the supervision of a competent and reliable abstractor. If in want of anything in this line it will pay to see me, and I will appreciate your business.

Office 125 South Fourth Street (Legal Row) Phone 383

A PRACTICE RUN.

The fire department was called to Thirteenth and Clay about 8 o'clock by an alarm from box 43. It was only a practice run however.

WORKING AT MOUND CITY.

Mr. A. Franke, who has been at work on the Mayflower at Mound City, will finish his work today or tomorrow and return home. The boat, which sank in the Mississippi near Cairo recently, will be let off the ways by Monday. At first it was thought that she would be a total loss.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascara Candy Cathartic. Take or Buy H. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

W. M. JONES REAL ESTATE AND MORTGAGE LOANS

See me to buy, sell or mortgage realty. OFFICE 328 1/2 BROADWAY

J. S. GANSTER Notary Public

AND SOLICITOR OF PENSION CLAIMS

Prompt and thorough attention given to all cases. Vouchers for quarterly payment of pensions carefully attended to. Office, 714 South Third street.

STOP SMOKING

COCHRAN & OWEN'S

Special Sale of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Summer Shoes

Ladies' $3.50 and $3.00 tan and black Oxfords..... $1.25

Misses' 2.00 and 1.50 tan and black slippers..... .75

Children's 1.50 and 1.00 tan and black slippers..... .75

And men's 4.00 and 3.50 tan and black vicci kid shoes this week..... 3.00

SHOES POLISHED FREE

331 BROADWAY

331 BROADWAY